PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION ORDER

THIS MATTER came on to be heard and was heard by the undersigned Judge presiding over the May 19, 2014, civil session of Wake County Superior Court upon plaintiff State of North Carolina's application for a Preliminary Injunction under N.C. Gen. Stat. § 75-14. On May 9, 2014, Superior Court Judge John R. Jolly, Jr. granted the State's Motion for a Temporary Restraining Order (TRO) that, inter alia, prohibited defendants from conducting computer repair business activities and accessing related business accounts in North Carolina.

Assistant Attorney General Matt Liles appeared on the State's behalf at the appointed time for the preliminary injunction hearing. Defendant Garrett Foster appeared and was heard on the matter. The other defendants did not appear after reasonable attempts to notify them. It appears to the Court from the Complaint and the affidavits filed in substantiation thereof that there is a strong likelihood that the State will prevail in this action. It also appears to the Court that the State's request for a Preliminary Injunction under N.C. Gen. Stat. § 75-14 should be granted, with respect to the defendants who have been served, so that further harm to the public and further violations of North Carolina law might be prevented.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that defendants and/or their businesses, their agents, employees, and corporate successors or assigns, and any persons acting in concert with them, be and hereby are Restrained and Prohibited from: (1) advertising, offering, or entering into contracts for computer repair services in North Carolina; (2) soliciting or accepting deposits or payments from consumers for any product or service; (3) collecting any further payment, directly or indirectly, from consumers related to the aforementioned business; (4) destroying, transferring, concealing, altering, or removing from their possession or control any financial records, consumer contracts, emails, or other correspondence, business records, and other documents of defendants; (5) transferring, withdrawing, concealing, or encumbering any assets of defendants pending further order of the Court; or (6) transferring, removing, concealing or encumbering any consumer property.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that defendants and/or their businesses, their agents, employees, and corporate successors or assigns, and any persons acting in concert with them be and hereby are required to return all consumer property entrusted to them within the next five (5) business days.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that defendants and their businesses be required to produce the following records within the next ten (10) days: (1) A complete list of the corporate name, street and mailing addresses, telephone number, and the jurisdiction of incorporation of all

“d/b/a’s,” affiliated entities, predecessor entities, successor entities, agents, attorneys, officers, and all other business entities acting, or purporting to act, in concert with defendants or on defendants’ behalf; (2) a complete list of the names, street and mailing addresses, and telephone numbers of every person with an ownership interest, either directly or indirectly, in defendants or associated business entities; (3) the name and address of every bank at which any of defendants maintain, and/or in the past three years have maintained, deposit, checking, or other bank accounts, and the account number for each such account; (4) a statement of the current monetary balance in each such account held by any of defendants, together with a copy of the most recent bank statement for each such account and all bank statements from the past three (3) years for each such account; and (5) a current financial statement, showing the current assets and liabilities for defendants and/or their businesses.

SO ORDERED, this the 19th day of May 2014.
